

Public Relations Participant Enrollment Form

- Do you have interest in being included in public relations opportunities representing FPA San Diego? If the answer is “Yes,” please complete this form and fax to FPA at (619) 795-1171.
- Participants must be CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ practitioners in good standing with FPA San Diego.
- The Public Relations Participant program was created to establish a group of CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ practitioners that will be available via e-mail to fulfill media requests for interview opportunities. Most media requests need to be fulfilled within 1 hour of receipt of the request. As a member of the public relations participant program you will receive requests for media opportunities via e-mail. Requests may include the following: FPA national media requests, San Diego Union Tribune money makeover’s, T.V. interview opportunities, public awareness activities and pro-bono planning requests. There is no cost for this program, and participation in any of the opportunities is completely voluntary.
